TWENTIETH

Annual Reunion

OF THE

Fifth Indiana Cavalry

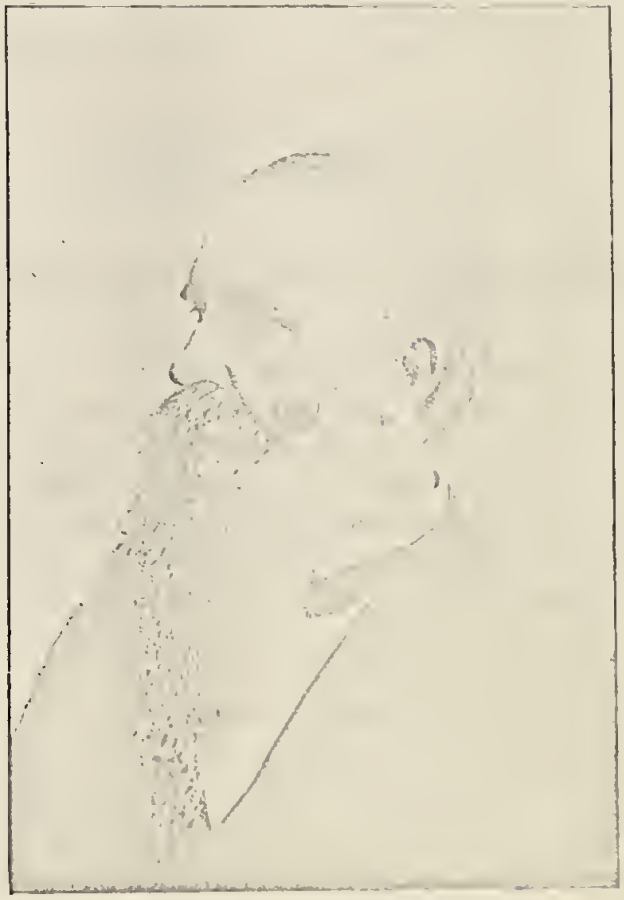
Association,

HELD AT

GREENFIELD, IND.

September 16 and 17, 1902.

1903
BUTLER PRINTING HOUSE,
NOBLESVILLE, IND.



THOS. H. BUTLER,

COLONEL FIFTH INDIANA CAVALRY.

Brevet Brigadier-General Volunteers for meritorious services during the war.

Twentieth Annual Reunion

OF THE

Fifth Indiana Cavalry Association.

The Annual Session of the Association convened at the court house in Greenfield, Ind., Sept. 16, 1902, at 1:30 p. m. with President J. H. McMillen in the chair.

Comrade L. J. Bruner invoked the Divine blessing.

The Roll was then called and the decease of comrades reported. The President appointed comrades M. T. Morris, W. A. W. Dally, and John Hauger for Committe on Memorial Resolutions.

The President then addressed the meeting as follows:

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

Eight years ago we held our Twelfth Reunion in this beautiful, patriotic city, and it affords us much pleasure to meet you again in this our Annual Twentieth Session.

This is the third time we have met you, and it is indeed gratifying to see the interest taken by the citizens and comrades in the gathering of the Fifth Indiana Cavalry Association.

These meetings bring to mind the strife between the North and South, when so many Hoosier boys, more than 210,000, went to the front to fight and die for their country's cause, and after the cruel war was over, and the South had laid down their arms, more than 24,000 of our patriotic Hoosier boys were left on Southern battlefields, to fill the known and unknown graves of the Sunny South.

"They sleep the sleep that knows no waking, 'till Resurrection morn."

Scarcely a family in all this fair State, but that had cause for [illegible], but Indiana may well be proud of her war record. Her people [illegible]ent by thousands at every call.

The War Department had no fear that Indiana would not fill her quota of Boys in Blue when called upon. They were in nearly every battle of importance. They were at Gettysburg, Missionary Ridge, Antietam Chicamauga, Manassas, Prarie Grove (Henderson's Mills), Rheatown, Blountsville, Walkersford. The Fifth Indiana Cavalry was engaged in twenty battles and skirmishes, almost daily.

America our country, land of the free and home of the brave. No other country can be compared to it. It is grand, majestic. It surpasses any other on this earth. Other countries may outnumber us, but our people are more courageous, more enlightened, more capable, more energetic. Other nations cannot compete with us in any of the industries but are dependent on us for many of the necessaries of life.

Our merchandise is carried to all nations and countries to the remotest parts of the earth. That grand old man Gladstone preferred to use an American axe.

Our reapers, mowing and sewing machines have gone to the ends of the earth. Our country is a progressive one. See the great engines on our railroads, pulling the immense trains heavily loaded, to all parts of this great land. The electric cars, spinning over their lines in every direction. Our ocean vessels are kept busy carrying the products of this country to all parts of the globe.

Great progress is being made in the Arts and Sciences. Agriculture surpasses that of other countries. Emigrants are coming to our shores by thousands, and soon the great West will "blossom as the rose."

The States east of the Mississippi river with Minnesota and Iowa west of the river, were acquired by exploration and settlement. The Louisiana purchase consisting of the States immediately west of the Mississippi, namely, Louisiana, Arkansas, Indian Territory, Kansas, Nebraska, North and South Dakota, Wyoming and Montana, were settled by the French in 1717. Ceded to Spain in 1753, returned to France in 1800, purchased by the United States 1803 for $15,000,000.

The Spanish Dominions, namely, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Utah, Nevada and western part of Colorado were ceded after the Mexican war, 1848, to the United States for the sum of $15,000,000.

Alaska with its thousands of Islands, was purchased from the Russian government 1867 for the sum of $7,200,000. This small portion of the United States is equal in extent to England, Ireland, France and Spain.

Our latest acquisitions are the Philippine Islands and the Island of Porto Rico, granted to the United States for the sum of $20,000,000 as an indemnity fund, on account of the Cuban war. All of these vast posessions coming under the old flag, the Star Spangled Banner we love so well, and under which we all fought so valiantly to maintain, in the years of 1861 to 1865, but for you comrades, that flag would not now be floating over this vast domain.

Soon after the Civil War our people became very much interested in connecting the Pacific and Atlantic oceans by an inter ocean canal at Panama or by the Nicarauga route. Many surveys and estimates were made by the United States navy and by the professors of United States Coast surveys, the estimated cost was $100,000,000. In 1876 the Inter Oceanic commission reported and submitted its plans to the president after much debating in Congress, as to cost and the likelihood of having trouble with other nations, the project was dropped.

In the same year the French people with its great engineer M. de Lesseps, turned their attention to cutting the isthmus after many surveys, an estimate of 132,000,000 was made as to the probable cost. In 1882 the work was commenced and in 1885, $150,000,000 had been spent and only ten per cent. of the work had been accomplished, and finally the work stopped, and has now been again undertaken by the United States, with a reserve fund of $600,000,000 in the treasury, with a daily income of from two to thee hundred thousand. There is no doubt but that the great work will be accomplished in short order.

But comrades I do not wish to occupy your time longer, what I have had to say has been culled from history, and if any of you are interested at all, would refer you to the many encyclopedias.

It is conceded that the soldiers that served this country in the Civil War made this country what it is today.

At the close of the address the Secretary offered Secretary and Treasurer's report, showing

Total Receipts	$84 07
Disbursements	54 95
Balance in Treasury	$29 12

Report approved.

The Secretary then offered a report relating to the participation of members of the Association in the dedication of the Soldiers and Sailors' monument at Indianapolis, May 15, in the words and figures following: Pursuant to instructions from the committee in charge of the dedication of the Soldiers and Sailors' monument, D. W. Patty, R. P. Finney, W. W. Angel, Robert Heller, J. H. McMillen, Barnard Hale, M. T. Morris, A. J. Kramer, L. J. Bruner and C. H. McCormic were detailed as Color Guard. All of said detail reported for duty except Robert Heller, for reasons unknown to the Secretary, and comrade Bruner, who did not receive notice of his detail. D. W. Patty, Color Bearer, by virtue of being Secretary of the Association, waived his right to serve as such, and company H having been the color company of the regiment, suggested that Major Finney a former member of said company act as color bearer, which suggestion was concurred in by the comrades present.

The following named comrades were in the parade and followed our old banner in the line of march to the grand stand in front of the monument:

Maj. R. P. FINNEY. GEORGE DUNCAN.

The Comrades who returned the Flag to the State Library after the Dedication of the Soldiers' Monument, May 15, 1902.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies Color Bearer Finney with D. W. Patty, M. T. Morris and Geo. Duncan fell in line with the parade under the battle scarred banner of our gallant old Regiment and marched to the State House and at 5:30 p. m. May 15, 1902 bade good bye to our dear old flag and restored it to the custody of the State Librarian.

After the reading of the foregoing report the comrades were favored with a short but excellent talk from comrade King, Chaplain Dept. Ind. G. A. R.

Letters were read from absent comrades, expressing love for the comrades and Association and regrets at being unable to attend the reunion. A cablegram of congratulations from comrade Gowdy, Consul General at Paris, France, was received and read.

Comrade Dungau made a short address, comrade Wishard following in his usual inimitable humorous style. He was responded to by comrades Miller, Bruner and others.

The meeting then adjourned and after a general handshaking repaired to a hotel and partook of a generous supper, which the hospitality of the comrades of Co. G. and the citizens of Greenfield provided for the members of the Association.

CAMP FIRE.

Pursuant to adjournment the comrades assembled at the M. E. church at 8 p. m. comrade McMillen presiding.

The exercises were opened with song by quartette, "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground."

Invocation by comrade Bruner.

Address of welcome and tender of the hospitality of the city by the Mayor, which was responded to by Capt. Jeffries in his usual happy manner.

Lee O. Harris addressed the meeting in a few well chosen words, after which by the request of the comrades recited the following original poem, composed and read by him at a meeting of the Association held in Greenfield in 1894:

ROLL CALL.

The bugle sounds! Fall in! Fall in!
Close up! Right dress! So, steady! Front!
Sergeant, the lines are formed; begin
To call the roll as you were wont
In those rough days of long ago,
Ere these young men and maids were born,
As from the past floats soft and low
The music of the bugle horn.

And with its echoes seemed t orise
A vision of the vanished years,
Till o'er that twilight landscape lies
The dew of memory's silent tears.
The vanished years when stalwart men
Touched elbows down the long blue line,
And charged through Southern wood and glen,
Till earth was drunk with Death's red wine.

Ay, redder wine than e'er was crushed
From purple grapes, an l richer far,
Was trod from hero hearts, and gushed
About the crimson feet of War.
And pangs that time can ne'er assuage
Were gathered then for all the years,
On fields new named for history's page,
Whose christening font o'erflowed with tears.

The long blue line! how swift it sprang
In answer to the bugle peal!
That charging shout! how loud it rang
Along the ranks of leveled steel!
What gallant souls flew up to God!
What hero hearts amid the fray,
Poured rich libation on the sod
Where now they mingle, clay with clay!

Ay, there was manhood, tall and swart,
With strength of limb and dauntless air;
The youth, still wearing on his heart
A cherished lock of golden hair;
The father, whose stout heart would melt
At memories of domestic bliss;
The boy, whose beardless cheeks still felt
The moisture of a mother's kiss.

Such was the host which Freedom sent
To guard her temple's holy fain,
Till in our Southern land was spent
The storm of Treason's leaden rain.
To-night we call the roll again.
Who answers "Here?" Not all! Not all!
Where are the ranks of stalwart men,
Who sprang to the first bugle call?

Look down the line and see to-night
Old men whose heads are silver-crowned;
Too blind to see the musket's sight,
Too deaf to hear the bugle sound.
That stooping form is out of line;
That crutch, my friend, is much too slow;
That armless sleeve, old comrade mine,
Could never strike the charging foe.

That trembling frame could never stand
The weary march, the tentless bed;
No foe would fly that nerveless hand,
And fear would mock that palsied tread.
The gallant host, which, in its prime,
Once seemed to spurn the earth they trod,
Stands shaken by the hand of Time,
And dwindled to an "awkward squad."

Yet all these gaps along the line,
So vacant unto other sight,
Dear comrades, to your eyes and mine,
Are filled with shadow forms to-night.
Here some who sleep beneath the clay
Of Southern fields stand forth again;
Here some, who grieved their lives away,
Shut up in Treason's prison pen.

Here from sepulchral field and wood
They gather at the bugle call,
And stand again, as once they stood,
In manly beauty, strong and tall;
And as we call each cherished name
That grief has blotted with a tear,
Life seems to stir each spectral frame,
And ghostly voices answer, "Here!"

Each year some dear, familiar face
To Memory's keeping we consign;
Each year some comrade takes his place
Among the shadows in the line.
And thus the living ranks grow thin.
Ah, few must be the years, at most,
Before we are all mustered in,
To serve among the silent host.

But while we live, though halt and blind,
And shattered by the storms of war,
Our country's bugle call will find
"All present—or accounted for."
And 'neath our flag of Stripes and Stars
We'll gather still as comrades true,
Till freedom stoops to kiss the scars
Of her last, dying Boy in Blue.

Impromptu talks by Comrades Miller, Bruner, Duncan and Patty.

Adjournment to meet at 8 A. M. next morning.

WEDNESDAY.

Wednesday, Sept. 17th, Association convened at court house pursuant to adjournment.

Comrade Dally invoked the Divine blessing.

The Memorial Committee submitted the following report, which was approved as read:

WHEREAS, The following named comrades of our Association, to-wit: Isaac Overly, George McKinney, I. P. Henderson, John Huston, Allen Lowe, Eli V. Chaney, John Hoke, Samuel Rock, Alexander Cauble, Jesse Harris, H. W. Talhelm, Dan Gorham, Henry Idlewine, Col. Felix Graham, Surg. A. C. Fosdic, John Wirts, W. W. Price and Benjamin Gellinger, who fought in the civil war from 1861 to 1865, have been mustered into the Grand Army of Eternity, be it

RESOLVED, That the surviving comrades and brothers of those dear and beloved ones bow our heads and hearts in humble submission to Him who doeth all things well; that so long as life shall last we will cherish their memory and remember their deeds of valor, their sacrifice for and devotion to our loved country and glorious flag. Be it further

RESOLVED, That we, their surviving comrades here assembled, extend to their wives and children and friends our profound sympathy in their sad bereavement, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to their families.

W. T. MORRIS.
W. A. W. DALLY.
JOHN HAUGER.

Comrade Dally spoke at some length on the character and soldierly qualities of deceased Comrades Henderson, Gellinger and Talhelm. Comrades Bruner and Modlin paid tribute to the memory of Comrade Talhelm. Mrs. Alice Menaugh spoke of the virtues of Comrade Chaney. Comrades Patty, Miller and Geo. Duncan spoke of Col. Graham as a brave soldier, and claiming for him unexceptional ability as a cavalry commander. Comrade Morris spoke very feelingly of the decease of Comrade Price.

At the conclusion of the memorial services a collection was taken, by which $34.00 was contributed by the comrades present.

The election of officers being next in order, a ballot was had by which W. W. Angel was elected President for the ensuing year. Comrades Geo. Duncan was elected Vice-President, D. W. Patty Secretary and Treasurer and W. A. W. Dally Chaplain by acclamation.

The city of Portland, Ind., was chosen as the place for holding our next reunion, and the time fixed for the second Wednesday and Thursday in October, 1903.

Comrade L. J. Brunner was appointed Chairman of Executive Committee, with authority to select assistants.

On motion of D. W. Patty, Comrade R. P. Finney was endorsed for Department Commander, Indiana G. A. R., and all comrades of our Association requested to use their best endeavors to secure his election.

A resolution of thanks to our comrades of Co. G and the good people of Greenfield for the hearty manner in which we were welcomed and hospitably entertained during the reunion, was adopted.

The meeting then adjourned to meet at Portland, October 14th and 15th, 1903.

After a general hand-shaking and hearty good-byes the comrades proceeded to depart for their several homes, all well satisfied, and we believe no one regreted the time and means spent to be present on the happy occasion.

LETTERS.

WAR DEPARTMENT LIBRARY,
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 20, 1902.

MR. D. W. PATTY,
Secretary Fifth Indiana Cavalry Association,
Carmel, Indiana.

DEAR SIR:—I write to acknowledge with many thanks the receipt of the proceedings of the Nineteenth Annual Reunion of the Fifth Indiana Cavalry, which will find a permanent place in our files. The following numbers are still needed to complete our file: Second (1884); Third, Ninth (1891).

Very truly yours,
I. W. CHENEY, Librarian.

LETTERS FROM COMRADES.

WARSAW, IND., March 10, 1902.

D. W. PATTY,

DEAR COMRADE:—I received the report of the Nineteenth Annual Reunion and was glad to hear from the boys once more. Owing to my crippled condition I cannot meet with you, but my heart is with you every time you meet. I have not walked any for six years; otherwise my general health is good. Give my love to all. Find enclosed $1.00.

S. K. GSIFFITH.

EATONVILLE, WASH.

D. W. PATTY,

DEAR COMRADE:—I am happy to acknowledge receipt of invitation to attend our reunion at Greenfield. Am sorry I can't come. There is nothing I would enjoy more, but it is a pleasure I never expect to enjoy in this life, but I hope to meet you in a better world than this. May God bless you all. Hope you will have a good time.

My dear comrades, if this reaches you in time,
Please read it while you stand in line;
If you are like me you would,
For I should be glad to hear from all I could.

As you all knew before,
I was married in eighteen sixty-four;
Children were born to us —eleven—
But through sickness and death there are but seven.

And now in nineteen hundred and two,
Children at home we have but two;
And grandchildren, great and small,
We only have ten in all.

Now, if you do as I request,
Don't say he did not do his best;
And if any in the line did better,
Let him say so, and I'll send him a letter.

J. J. CARTER, Co. H.

STOCKDALE, TEX., Sept. 8, 1902.

D. W. PATTY:

Your kind invitation to attend the reunion at Greenfield on the 16th and 17th inst., is at hand. Sorry I can't be with you; nothing could give me more pleasure. Give my love to all the boys. Hope you will have a good time. Enclosed find $1.00. WM. MANN, Co. C.

SAND LAKE, MICH., Sept. 14.

DEAR COMRADE:

I received your notice of reunion; was glad to hear from you. Owing to bad luck I can't meet with you this time, but I hope to meet you all at some future time. Give my love to all. Good-bye, dear old comrade.

SAMUEL OVERLY, Co. D.

CONNERSVILLE, Sept. 14.

D. W. PATTY:

DEAR COMRADE:—It is with much regret that I can not be with you at the reunion. Please remember me to all the comrades. I hope you will have a good reunion. Best wishes to all. Enclosed find $1.00, my contribution to the expense fund. S. F. RINEHART, Co. C.

MAITLAND, MO., Sept. 6, 1902.

COMRADE:

I received your notice of the reunion. I am sorry that I cannot attend. Would like to take all the old comrades by the hand, but it is not to be this time. While I cannot be with you in person I will be with you in my feelings, and will ask the Good Father and Captain to guard all who are present, and also those who are unable to attend. Wishing you health and happiness, I am

Yours in F. L. C.,
J. W. MCDANIEL, Co. E.

CHICAGO, ILL., Sept. 14, 1902.

D. W. PATTY,

OLD COMRADE AND FRIEND:—Your favor reached me in due time and was pleased to hear from you and quite amused at the way it was got up, I presume J. Whitcomb Riley must have been in your neighborhood. I am at present in poor health, am suffering from rheumatism; had made up my mind last fall to attend this reunion but my condition is such that I cannot, in fact I cannot put my shoes on, my ankles are so badly swollen. I should dearly love to meet the old comrades in reunion, I have often planned but something to prevent has always turned up at the time, but if God spares my life another year I think I will be with you, I am 72 years old this month and I suppose I shall soon have to answer the last roll call. Give my love to all the boys (for I still call them boys). I hope you will have a good meeting and I hope to be with you at the next reunion. Again wishing you all a happy time, I am yours

HARRY A. WHITMAN, Late Capt. Co. D.

LOUISVILLE, KY., 203 Chestnut St.

DEAR COMRADES:—It is with deep regret that I must pen greetings to you rather than clasp your hands in joyous welcome, but illness prevents me. One of my happiest anticipations the past year was the hope of attending this reunion. My heart and mind are with you today and I again renew my allegiance to you and promise to stand by you through life, and when the last taps are sounded from on High for the last time, comrade, I will still be by your side and if possible ministering to your wants, and only relinquish my claim on the comrades of the Fifth Ind. Cav. when you reach the brink of the silent river and the Commander-in-Chief on high escorts you into the vast beyond. May this be the happiest reunion you have ever held and shall look forward to the next annual reunion, hoping then to meet with you. Greetings to all.

MRS. EFFIE LAMAR SHERIDAN.

RUSHVILLE, IND., Sept. 16, 1902.

DEAR COMRADES OF THE 5TH IND CAV.:—I intended to be with you today in our reunion but circumstances will not admit at this time, but my heart and best wishes are with you. May God bless you all. May we meet in many more reunions and finally meet in the grand reunion above, is the fervent prayer of your comrade

I. L. CLIFFORD, Co. B.

JEFFERSONVILLE, IND., Sept. 11, 1902.

D. W. PATTY, Secretary,

MY DEAR COMRADE:—Present my sincere regrets to our comrades for my absence at our reunion, which I have looked forward to with a sincere desire and expectation of attending. But as you know I am a delegate to the National Encampment and can not get leave to attend both meetings. While my inclination is to attend our own Association's reunions it is duty that I should attend the G. A. R. Encampment because I have the honor of representing the third district as a delegate.

Well Patty, I want you and comrades Morris and Duncan to tell the comrades all about the grand turnout of our regiment on their last march behind the dear, old flag of the 5th Indiana Cavalry, that we all followed during the long, dark night of the Civil War and how we four carried it back and restored it to its last resting place, perhaps never more to pass in grand review. Indeed it was a great privilege to have seen with your own eyes the grand stand after the deposit of the flags, festooned as it was with the old, battle-scarred flags, surrounded by tens of thousands of upturned faces with moist eyes, in memory of the loved ones who followed those sacred colors. That scene has given me new hope in the patriotism of the masses of the people.

Well dear comrade, I hope this reunion will be the best and numerously attended of any in all the years gone by, there are enough living members of the dear old regiment to make it so. Tell all the boys and girls present howdy for me (they never get old in my eyes). And may God in his mercy shower you all with his blessings is the prayer of your comrade

HORTON, KAN., Sept. 4, 1902.

D. W. PATTY,

DEAR SIR AND COMRADE:—Notice of the reunion of the old boys of the 5th Cavalry received yesterday 3rd inst. I regret very much my inability to be with the boys on this occasion, but be sure that my heart will be there, life size. Will you kindly give all the boys my best regards and if the good Lord spares my life the coming year I will try to be with you at the next reunion. Yours,

M. H. SOPER.

LILLY ILLS., Sept. 12, 1902.

DEAR COMRADES:—Again I find myself unable to meet with you this fall, have not been well since the 1st of June. I would love to meet with you all once more, give my love to all the boys, if we should never meet here on earth again I hope we will meet in the sweet by and bye

LLOYD ELKINS, Co. F.

SANTA PAULA, CAL., Sept. 11, 1902.

D. W. PATTY, Secretary 5th Ind. Cavalry Association:

MY DEAR COMRADE:—I am in receipt of the invitation to attend the reunion of the old 5th Ind. Cav. at Greenfield, Ind. on the 16—17, inst. It brings most vividly to my mind the last reunion I attended before leaving for California, which was held at Greenfield. It makes my heart thrill yet to think of the open handed hospitality with which we were received by the old comrades of Co. G. and of the good citizens of Greenfield, I have seen nothing to exceed it unless it was the marvelous capacity of the boys to stow away the good things set before them in their baraacks. It would warm up my old heart again to meet with you and greet my old comrades again. On the appointed day I will be with you in thought and in spirit and hope you will have the time of your lives. Say, Dave, that invitation you got up was not only novel but worthy of its author. Remember me most kindly to all the visiting comrades and assure them that I would be most happy to take them by the hands, the distance is too great and my business pressing so I will not be with you.

Very truly, J. K. HAUGH.

NEODESHA, KAN.

The report of the 19th Annual Reunion at hand, I am always glad to hear of the old boys meeting and having a good time, I am too old to try to meet with you any more. On the 1st of May 1864 at Camp Nelson my horse fell with me and injured my back, which has troubled me ever since. Am drawing a pension for wounds received at Henderson's Mills, Oct. 11, 1863. Wishing you all many more happy reunions I am faithfully yours,

A. J. JOHNSON, Co. F.

OAK VALLEY, KAN., Sept. 10, 1902.

D. W. PATTY,

DEAR COMRADE:—Your invitation to the 20th Annual Reunion at hand, thanks for former reports of the meetings of our Association. CHESTER S. WILLIAMS, Co. I.

POLLOCK, MO.

DEAR COMRADE:—Your cordial invitation to meet you in reunion at Greenfield on the 16th and 17th inst. to call in memorial the days of battle strife and war's turmoil is to hand. I am sorely sorry that circumstances are such that I cannot be with you in person, but in spirit of true patriotism I am with you all. My extreme old age and ill health renders it impossible to meet with you. Give my sincere regards to all and fervent wishes for the welfare and happiness of all the survivors of the old 5th. JOHN D. SMART.

L. J. BRUNER Co. H,

Who was Awarded a Medal for Gallantry in the Field, at Walker's Ford, December, 1863.

ORVILLE, CAL.

D. W. PATTY.

DEAR COMRADE: The 19th Annual Report of our Regimental Association received, please accept my thanks. It would give me great pleasure to meet with you once more, but I am afraid it will never be. I am with you in spirit however if I cannot be in person. With greetings to all

I am yours,

H. C. VEACH, CO. C.

ZURICH, KAN., Sept. 8, 1902.

DEAR OLD COMRADES:—It would be a great pleasure to meet with you and talk over the battles, skirmishes and scouts through which we were engaged together and alas the months that we spent in those horrid prison pens of the South, which ruined the health and made life so unpleasant for so many of our brave comrades. Please excuse me from answering at roll call on the 16th inst. My health is poor and the distance so great, being one thousand miles, makes it impossible to be there. I still hope to meet you in reunion again and sit around the camp fire and call to mind the stirring scenes and incidents of the days of yore. Please send me report. Regards to all.

C. H. GRAHAM, CO. F.

PARIS, FRANCE, October 25, 1902.

MR. DAVID PATTY, Carmel, Indiana.

DEAR SIR AND COMRADE:—I did not receive your letter in time to answer before the reunion. I cabled you that day, which I hope you received, and that the reunion was a great success. It gives me pleasure to enclose herewith $5.00 for the expense fund. Hoping I may soon receive the annual report, and with best wishes, I am

Yours in F. C. and L.,

JOHN K. GOWDY.

CONCLUSION.

DEAR COMRADES.—We forward you this Report of our Twentieth Annual Reunion, hoping that you will pardon the delay in getting it out, which delay has been owing to the poor health of the Secretary, who has been ill the greater portion of the winter. Our next meeting will be held in the city of Portland, Ind., October 14 and 15, 1903, your attendance is earnestly requested. We fully expect Col. Butler to be with us on the occasion. Comrade Lou Bruner writes that the citizens of Portland are greatly pleased to have us meet there this year and assures free entertainment to all members of the Association who may attend; that more persons have asked to entertain comrades than there will be comrades present.

We again call your attention to our Roster which contains a number of names of comrades without P. O. address. There are doubtless other names on the Roster of comrades who are deceased as we do not hear from them. Now comrades we again urge you to carefully go over the rolls and where there is a mistake in spelling, name or P. O. address omitted, or the comrade deceased, please notify the Secretary giving the necessary correction.

Comrade, as a member of the Association, you are entitled to a copy of this Report which is sent to all the members, and as the cost of getting up and mailing these Reports, notifying the comrades of the time of meeting, together with other incidental expenses, costs the Association about $100 per year, and these expenses are borne by a comparatively few members, and as the reports are for all the members of the Association and are surely interesting to all the comrades, we do deem it right to call on you for a small contribution from 20c to $1.00 as you may feel able. If, however, you were present at the last Reunion and contributed or done so by letter, you are not asked for anything. If you have not attended the recent meetings or written the Secretary, please acknowledge the receipt of the Report so that we may know that we have your correct address.

Hoping to meet you at Portland next October, we are

Yours in F. L. C.

D. W. Patty, Secretary. W. W. Angel, President.

HOMESICK

BY EZRA B. NEWCOMB

I was born in Indiany—an' I'm pinin' to git back
From these prairie-winds 'at howl, an' snarl, an' moan around my shack;
From this empty, endless wideness, stretchin' fur as ye can see,
An' my heart's a purt' nigh breakin' fer the sight o' jest one tree.

I was raised in Indiany—an' I'm wishin' I was back
Where the shiftin', shinin' Wabash cuts its twistin', trailin' track,
Plowin' through the rus'lin' corn-fields, loafin' under hangin' boughs,
Where they's pools to hide the fishes, an' they's shade to cool the cows.

My old home's in Indiany—an' I'm heartsick to git back!
Them cricks an' woods hes got a tongue these lonesome prairies lack;
Fer they's nothin' here but silence—'cept the never-endin' cry
O' the winds, 'at moan an' mourn ontel ye think ye'll shorely die.

An' ye hain't no wish fer livin', an' the dearest thing ye crave
Is to die, an' hev it over—ef they'll only make yer grave
Back there in Indiany where the Wabash twists an' turns,
Where the sun hes trees to shine on, and the autumn color burns;

Where the sycamore's crook'd branches shows the way the river goes,
An' across the yallerin' corn-fields ye can hear the cry o' crows;
While the leaves is drappin' sof'ly—Nachur's tears fer days 'at's dead—
An' 'mongst the hick'ry's trimblin' boughs the squirrel perks his head;

Where the oak an' maple colors make the woods a kind o' hint
O' the land yer lookin' fer at last, an' seem to ketch a glint
O' the glory streamin' down'ards through a break in Heaven's wall
An' in the whisp'r'n' silences ye hear the angels call!

Indiany's purt' nigh Heaven! An' I'm wishin' I was home.
If they's them 'at's thinkin' dif'er'nt, they've got license fer to roam;
